

Since the launch we have added:

Resources
308

Courses
5

Discussions
2

Events
11

Maps
10

Events

The Caribbean Energy and Statistics Information Conference was held live in Barbados from the 21st-23rd March 2022, where representatives of CARICOM Member States engaged in discussions and training on statistics, information management and gender in the energy sector.

Read more

Discussion

Join the Discussion Group for Energy Statistics and Information within our Community of Practice to share your views with other energy practitioners.

Join now

Resources

The new Energy Report Cards for the fifteen member states and the aggregated report for CARICOM have been uploaded to the Resources Hub.

Read more

Data Portal

The CARICOM Energy Information System (sieCARICOM), a joint project between CARICOM, OLADE and the CCREEE, is aimed to enhance energy statistics, planning and management capacity within the region.

The system will contain information related to energy balances, GHG emission factors, demographic, economic and environmental indicators; energy infrastructure, reserves and potentials and governance-related information.

Find out more

Courses

The Project Preparation Facility (PPF) Project Concept Development Training, is now available within the Learning Management System (LMS). This course will equip sustainable energy project developers with the knowledge to produce, high quality project concept and proposal documents.

Join now

Coming in April 2022: LEAP Modelling courses. Look out for more information.

STAY INFORMED

Join CCREEE on social media for regular updates on our work and news from the field

